

I travel all around the Southeast. I pay to have quality radio to listen to. Most of the radio stations I receive while in rural areas are pure junk! XM radio gives me the listening pleasure that people in nice high rise office have the option to listen to. My car is my office and I would be extremely upset if you take away my office music, traffic and entertainment.